

Section 26

Scheme of Delegations

26.1 Introduction

The Scheme of Delegations (“Scheme”) authorises officers to exercise the functions of the Council as set out in this document. This Scheme repeals and replaces all previous schemes of delegation and all amendments made thereto.

For the purposes of this Scheme, the term “Chief Officer” shall have the following meaning:

- (a) The Chief Executive,
- (b) Deputy Chief Executive, and
- (c) Heads of Service.

This Scheme contains two types of authorities:

- (i) Functional, operational and day to day management of services delegated to Chief Officers; and
- (ii) Functions delegated to specific officers.

Annex 1 details Reserved Authorities.

The exercise of any function delegated by this Scheme is subject to and must be in accordance with the following. They are listed in order of precedence, which should be followed in the event of any conflict between their provisions:

- (a) European and National Law
- (b) Procurement Regulations
- (c) Financial Regulations
- (d) The Scheme of Delegations
- (e) Emergency Planning Procedures
- (f) Other Council policies, procedures, and previous decisions

Authorities granted within b) and c) above, take precedence over this Scheme and accordingly the implementation and interpretation of the Scheme must be considered in conjunction with both b) and c) above.

Any reference in this Scheme to a statute includes any statutory instrument, regulation, order, rule, guidance, or circular made under it and includes any modification amendment or re-enactment thereto.

Delegations to Chief Officers

26.2 General Obligations

- 26.2.1 Subject to paragraphs 26.2.1(a) below, Chief Officers are entitled, in their absolute discretion, to authorise named officers within their area of management to exercise all or some of their delegated functions, unless the law requires specific named officers to be given delegated authority.
- (a) Any authorisation of named officers by Chief Officers under paragraph 26.2.1 above shall:
- (i) comply with the Council's financial regulations (if applicable),
 - (ii) be appropriately documented, and
 - (iii) only occur after the relevant Chief Officer has informed the Chief Executive, the Section 151 Officer, and the Monitoring Officer. The Chief Executive shall have the power to veto any such authorisation.
