Supporting Information:

Moorhill Primary School converted to a Trust school on 1 April 2012; they now form part of the Chase Co-Operative Learning Trust together with Western Springs Primary School in Rugeley.

A Trust school is a foundation school which has set up a charitable foundation to support the school for the advancement of education. A Trust school manages its own assets, employs its own staff and sets its own admission criteria as well as choosing which partners to work with.

As a Trust school it is entitled to charitable status, as Foundation Schools, under Section 78 of the School Standards and Financial Act 1998.

The main objectives of the Trust are to advance the education of the pupils at the school together with members of the community for the benefit of the community. The objects of the Trust have regard to its obligation to promote community cohesion under the Education Acts.
