Section 1

Background

Representatives have been previously appointed to these organisations.

Section 2

Details of Matters to be Considered

It is important that nominated representatives have confirmed their willingness to serve on these bodies before their names are put forward for consideration.

Section 3

Contribution to CHASE

In making these appointments, the Council is working with the community and voluntary organisations to further the CHASE objectives.

Section 4

Section 17 (Crime Prevention) Implications

There are no identified implications in respect of Crime Prevention Implications.

Section 5

Human Rights Act Implications

There are no identified implications in respect of Human Rights Act 1998 arising from this report.

Section 6

Data Protection Act Implications

There are no identified implications in respect of Data Protection Act.

Section 7

Risk Management Implications

There are no identified implications in respect of Risk Management.

Section 8

Legal Implications

The Council is empowered to appoint and/or nominate representatives to outside bodies. These representatives may be Councillors but they need not be. In some instances, the representatives are the Council's delegate on that body but in other circumstances, e.g. if the organisation is a Charity, the representative becomes a trustee whose first duty is to the Charity and its objects.

Section 9

Financial Implications

There are no identified financial implications for the Council arising from this report.

Section 10

Human Resource Implications

There are no Human Resource Implications.

Section 11

Conclusions

To consider the appointment of Councillor Mrs. G. M. Whitehouse to Hopkins & Sneyd Almshouse Charity until the Annual Council Meeting 2007.
