Supporting Information:

Addaction is a national charity which delivers specialist drug and alcohol treatment from its premises at 5 Ber Mar House.

The organisation is established for the relief of poverty and sickness among persons generally who are dependent upon or affected by addiction to narcotic drugs and other similar substances or compounds of possible potential or suspected danger to the individual and the community. Furthermore, the organisation will provide relief of poverty and sickness among parents of children affected by dependence upon or addiction to drugs. Education and training is also provided for individuals into the danger arising from habitual use of drugs.

The premises at 5 Ber Mar House is open to all sections of the community. Their services are free of charges and are advertised locally and promoted in partnerships with other community groups.

The organisation is commissioned locally by DAT (Drugs and Alcohol Treatment), which is now part of Staffordshire County Council
