March, 2022

Dear Prospective Candidate,

District Council Elections – Thursday, 5 May, 2022

With reference to the above elections, I attach herewith a nomination pack as requested.

Notices of Elections are required to be published by Monday, 28 March, 2022. Cannock Chase District Council will be publishing its Notice on Friday, 25 March, 2022, copies of which will be displayed at the Civic offices and on the Council's website. Completed nomination forms can be presented from Monday, 28 March, 2022 to Tuesday, 5 April, 2022 between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. on working days (i.e. excluding weekends).

Under the Representation of the Peoples Regulations (RPR), 2001, every candidate at a local government election is entitled to a free copy of that part of the full Electoral Register covering the electoral area being contested. A request for a copy of the Register must be made in writing to the Electoral Registration Officer. The Register can only be supplied on or after 28 March, 2022, and will be supplied electronically unless a paper copy is specifically requested.

No person to whom these Regulations apply who has been supplied with a copy of the Register may:-

- a) supply a copy of the full Register to any other person;
- b) disclose any information contained in it that is not contained in the edited Register; or
- c) make use of any such information other than for electoral purposes.

Any person who contravenes the provisions specified shall be guilty of an offence and liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

I would also like to point out that campaign publicity material is subject to a number of restrictions under Electoral Law. All posters, placards and bills which make reference to the Election must carry an imprint detailing the name and address of the printer and promoter of the material on its face. Similarly all printed materials distributed for the purpose of promoting or procuring the Election of the candidate must also carry the name and address of the printer and promoter. Failure to do so is an offence, which may be reported to the Police.

Postal Votes

I would advise you that I shall proceed to open postal voter's ballot papers as per the enclosed Notice. Please let me know as soon as possible if you or your representative(s) will be attending any of the proceedings. If necessary, we may need to limit the number of observers at any one time. I would advise that the returned opened postal votes will be sealed in ballot boxes at the end of each official opening and stored securely. It will be necessary to re-open the boxes daily at each of the official openings for additional postal votes to be added, the boxes will then be re-sealed. For clarification, individual votes are not counted at this stage and ballot papers are kept face down.

Verification and Count

The verification and count of the ballot papers will take place at Chase Leisure Centre, Stafford Road, Cannock, WS11 4AL as follows:

Friday, 6 May, 2022 commencing at 10:00 a.m. Verification of all ballot papers followed by the count for Cannock Chase Council wards (13 in total if all seats are contested).

For security and health reasons, it will be necessary for admittance to the count to be restricted and by ticket only. Please complete the enclosed forms and return them to the Electoral Services team by Wednesday, 27 April, 2022, giving details of the persons who will be attending. There will be no entry without a ticket.

Election Expenses

Under Sections 81 and 82 of the Representation of the Peoples Act (RPA), 1983, the Election Agent (or Candidate) of every District Council Candidate must submit a return as to the election expenses of that candidate to the Proper Officer of the Council, together with the relevant bills, receipts and declarations within 35 calendar days of the declaration of result of the election.

I will send you a set of Candidate's expenses forms, with your 'Notice of Confirmation as a Candidate'. If you require any further details please do not hesitate to contact Electoral Services on 01543 464437 or 464754.

2 – Certificate of authorisation	Office use only
Local government elections in England	Date received	Time received	Initials	No

To accompany the nomination of a candidate standing on behalf of a registered political party. (Note: candidates standing on behalf of two or more parties require a certificate from each party and each must allow the same registered joint description to be used).

This certificate must be issued by the registered Nominating Officer of the party or by a person authorised to sign on their behalf.

This certificate authorises the candidate to use a specific registered description or the name of the party as registered with the Electoral Commission, or to use 'any registered description or the party name as registered with the Electoral Commission'.

This authorised party name or description can then be included by the candidate on the nomination form. It is this which will appear as their description on the ballot paper. Party names and registered descriptions are listed on the Electoral Commission's website (<http://search.electoralcommission.org.uk>).

Dear Sir or Madam

Local Elections – May 2022

Posting of Election Materials on Street Lighting/Street Furniture

As campaigning begins, I'm writing to formally draw your attention to the County Council's policy in relation to the placing of election posters and material on County Council owned street lighting columns and signs:

As the Highway Authority, the County Council does not allow the use of street lighting and street furniture for the display of election posters or materials. It does not give any permission to any person or body to place election posters, or other election material, on street lighting columns, traffic signs and other street furniture or otherwise place such material within highway limits. Consequently, any signs or posters erected without permission are liable to be removed and the relevant Election Agent charged with the cost of removal.

I trust that you appreciate the County Council's position on this matter and thank you in anticipation of your co-operation.

Yours faithfully

John Tradewell

Director of Corporate Services
